FREWARE

...the conversion calculator for windows!

A TOUS LES TEMPS, A TOUS LES PEUPLES !

for all times, for all nations !

With this as their aspiration, the French National Convention adopted the metric system, as the legal system of units, on the 10th December 1799.

This calculator contains 570 different factors out of 48 areas. The numerical values can be alternatively entered and displayed as decimal numbers or real fractions.

To be able to use this software also without computers, every conversion can be printed as a table which contains 300 values. Design and make your own table book!

...the actual program version is tested under Win 95/98/ME/NT/2000 and XP
